Public Comments & General Discussion:

Jayne Morley thanked the County Facility Maintenance crew for all of their above & beyond work in conjunction with the installation of the new AC unit at the Library. Morley also read a public comment letter (see attached) from Kendra DiPietro, who had to work and couldn't attend the meeting. This letter thanked the Board of County Commissioners for their decision regarding the proposed Recreation District and also requested the necessary budgeting to keep the library open more than 20 hours a week.

Commissioner Broom introduced Representative Perry Will, who was in the audience.

Ken Wergin spoke about all of the trash he picks up along the main highways and requested some anti-littering signs that might discourage littering in those areas.
